ELC3524 Professional Communication for Computing Students
Assessment Overview (2025-2026)

Content	Details
Background	All ELC3524 Assessments will arise from a course-long computing-related project for the ELC Fund. ELC Fund A scheme for funding undergraduate ideation projects in the computing field which make people's daily living more convenient, comfortable and safer, or address the needs of specific target groups. With a maximum seed funding of HK$150,000 over a one-year development plan, ELC Fund aims to support the research and initial development of authentic and original ideas with a positive social impact. Your Role As PolyU undergraduate computing students, you are qualified for the ELC Fund.
Assessment Tasks	WHAT IS THE APPLICATION PROCEDURE? 1. Individual Video Portfolio (Assessment 1) 2. Group Project Proposal (Assessment 2) 3. Individual Milestone Achievement Tasks (Assessment 3) ASSESSMENT 1 Individual Video Portfolio (40%) • Applicants are required to submit an application video sharing who you are and your aspirations. • Video duration: Minimum 2 minutes; Maximum 2 minutes and 30 seconds • Submission Deadline: within 48 hours of Week 6 Class (via Blackboard) Shortlisted applicants will then form groups of 3 or 4 students. ASSESSMENT 2 GROUP PROJECT PROPOSAL (45%) Groups are required to use the knowledge gained throughout your studies and your authentic interests and experience to develop an idea and write a professional project proposal. The ELC Fund Assessment Panel will review: 1. Significance of the project goals and social impact 2. Justification of problems, need and opportunities 3. Uniqueness of project idea in comparison with existing solutions 4. Feasibility of project idea 5. Authenticity and credibility of project team 6. Effectiveness of overall structure 7. Professionalism of overall presentation

Guidelines

- Length: Minimum 2000 words; Maximum 2500 words
 - Project Schedule and Budget Estimation are not required.
- Structure: The ELC Fund does not require applicants to organise their proposal following a fixed structure. Teams are required to decide on the best structure and approach for your idea.
- Submission Deadline: within 48 hours of Week 13 Class (link on Blackboard)

ASSESSMENT 3Individual Milestone Achievement Tasks (15%)
